Creation mosaic, in the East Transept, covering an area of 2520 square feet, shows the Word of God creating the universe. The sea and its creatures on the left, the land and the life it supports on the right. Closest to the Hand of God is man.