"The Central Intelligence Agency" 327.1206/Ellis

This is the only picture I can find
of Allen W. Dulles.
I figure that he and probably his brother had come from the

Von Hofmann (sp?)
brothers of Berlin, Alexander and Wilhelm, and that they were all GENERATIONAL-SLAVES
probably from that lady in that van Eyck painting of Chancellor Rollin and that Virgin Mary. The slaves run around setting up the world for the Autists' world-takeover that this is. Allen Dulles set up the CIA for the Autist boys; and this is what we have, the TPE event in the Allen Dulles (left), who built the CIA's reputation in the 1950s, pictured with his brother, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

In addition to these successes, the agency benefited from the public's fascination with Dulles himself. A noted lawyer and brother of then-Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, he began his intelligence career in the OSS. Charming and sophisticated, he embodied the "James Bond" spy image that was popular during the 1950s.

Dulles secured his popularity in 1954, during the infamous McCarthy hearings on Communist influences in government. When Senator Joseph McCarthy charged that Communists had infiltrated the CIA, Dulles openly challenged him to prove it. McCarthy soon withdrew the claim. Dulles's bold confrontation with a man few dared to challenge helped enhance the agency's image.

Obviously I can't be here under all this invisible-torture all all these years without the boys' awareness! The whole global-system has been being supported by this LURE off of me.
